INTRODUCTION

Malaysia is hosting the 11th International Conference on Radiation Curing, RadTech Asia Expo '07. In conjunction with the Conference, an exhibition, RadTech Asia Expo '07 will also be held. The exhibition will give opportunity to manufacturers and suppliers, that support both upstream and downstream radiation curing activities to display their latest machinery and products. The exhibition, located within the same building as the Conference, promises to provide a conducive environment for the exhibitors to meet, discuss, interact and deal directly with their potential clients as well as European, North American and Latin American countries. The exhibition will also provide opportunity for the participants to learn and get acquainted with the latest tools and equipment of their profession.

Companies are invited to display their latest processing technology and machinery, EB and UV machines, resins, compounds and chemicals, new products and innovations, allied trades that support both upstream and downstream radiation curing activities.

The Malaysian Nuclear Society will also provide a web-link to the homepage of companies taking part in RadTech Asia Expo '07 at its homepage on <http://www.mint.gov.my/mns>
